Re: Revised OSHA Hazard Communication Standard (HCS) and Required Employee Training – December 1, 2013 Deadline

OSHA has revised the standards for chemical product labeling and Safety Data Sheets. They are requiring that employers train appropriate staff members on these changes by December 1, 2013.

Carey Wiper & Supply Co. has partnered with Brulin Chemical to offer you the following training resources:

- PowerPoint or PDF training detailing the upcoming changes
- Brief test on the above training
- Test answer key
- Blank Certificate of Completion

You can find these items under “Customer Resources” on our website (<http://careyonline.net>)

For further explanation by OSHA or to download additional resources, go to: <http://www.osha.gov/dsg/hazcom/index.html>

Please let us know if you have any questions.
